

GRANARY OF EUROPE NOW A WASTELAND

Beggars at Railway Stations Besiege Travelers With Pleas for Aid

KHARKOV, Oct. 11.—Poverly and plenty today run hand in hand along the railroads in the Ukraine, a country once known as the granary of Europe. There are bulging warehouses of grain at some stations, but at others, while beggars besiege the passenger trains at every village.

The Ukraine this year, as last, cannot produce enough food for its own people. The grain crops for 1922 are only about 60 per cent of normal, and soviet officials frankly admit that outside aid from relief organizations is necessary until next spring at least, especially among the children in the villages. The peasants say the officials are quite able to take care of themselves, excepting in the wasted districts where there was a crop failure due to drought or lack of seeds last season.

There are splendid crops this year in a few districts in the northern part of the Ukraine—equally as good as in normal times. But in the vast stretches of land were affected by hot weather and there is not nearly enough breadstuffs to go around. Ukrainian officials say that with the aid of the central soviet government they are making arrangements to transport 4,000,000 pounds of grain from the north to the south. From districts where food has been scarce even in summer, people have been flocking to the towns. As a result there are as many beggars in the larger places as last year, when there was a crop failure. Some of the beggars are almost plump, while others are as thin as can be. They resemble the pictures of hungry natives of India, and appear barely able to move about. In the poorer districts the village dogs, too, have become beggars, like the dogs of India—panting, mangy creatures that can be seen even in the canaloupe and apple peelings thrown from the car windows.

In addition to its fair grain crop in the north this season, the Ukraine has produced also about 13,000,000 pounds of beet sugar, three times more than last season, but barely enough for the 30,000,000 inhabitants of the Ukraine soviet republic itself. Ukrainian officials say they have plenty of potatoes this year, and that from present indications of the fall planting there are prospects of nearly a normal grain crop for 1923. This, they believe, would put the country on its feet again.

NEW JAPANESE PARTY RISES FROM OLD
TOKIO, Oct. 11.—Now that the old Kokumino party is dissolved, the public attention is concentrated on the future of the Kakushin club, a body that is to form the nucleus of the new party. On the day of the dissolution the chief members of the club met on the old premises of the dissolved party to formulate the political platform upon which the new party will be organized. These principles are universal suffrage, reduction of armaments, adjustment of prices, administrative reforms and improvement in diplomacy.

If you would keep posted upon the political conditions in nation, state and county, then you will of course read the Bonanza.

JAPAN LOAN BONDS SHOWING INCREASE

TOKIO, Oct. 10.—Considerable surprise has been occasioned owing to the remarkable increase during the last few months in the amount of loan bonds held by the Bank of Japan, which is now put at more than 300,000,000 yen. The vice president of the bank in explanation of the situation has published a statement in which he says:

"Although there are people who allege that the Bank of Japan has been burdened with a large amount of loan bonds, thereby causing an inflation of currency, this is not exactly the case, since the increase of loan bonds in the possession of the bank is more due to that of foreign bonds than of domestic bonds. 'The increase in the amount of foreign bonds is due to the fact that prior to 1920 the foreign bonds possessed by the bank abroad were included in the amount of specie held abroad, but since that time the bonds have been separated from the specie account and placed in the bond account. This, however, has not caused an expansion of currency in any way."

Prompt service in printing, big or small, is the motto of the Bonanza.
